

A SONG Sung by Mrs Willifses Girle, in the OPERA call'd Kingdom of the Birds. 2

In the Feilds in Frost and Snows, watching late and Early, there I keep my

Fathers Cows, there I milke em Yearly, Booring here, booring

there, here a boo, there a boo, every where a boo, we defye all

Care and strife, in a Charming Country Life;

Then at Home amongst the Fowles,
Watching late and Early,
There I tend my Fathers Owles,
There I feed em Yearly,
Whooring here Whooring there,
Here a whoo, there a whoo, every where a whoo,
We defye all Care and Strife,
In a Charming Country Life,

(3)

When wee Summer Fleeces heap,
Watching late and Early,
Then I Shear my Fathers Sheep,
Then I keep em Yearly,
Baeing here Baeing there,
Here a bae there a bae, every where a bae,
We defye all Care and Strife,
In a Charming Country Life.

For the Flute

The musical score consists of two staves of music for the flute. The top staff begins with a treble clef, a common time signature, and a key signature of one sharp. It features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with several grace notes indicated by small asterisks. The bottom staff begins with a bass clef, a common time signature, and a key signature of one sharp. It also uses eighth and sixteenth notes, along with grace notes. Both staves conclude with a double bar line and repeat dots, indicating a return to the beginning of the section.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.

and I will sing to you a song of olden time.
